

TOKSAVE

Dear Parents / Guardians,

Tomorrow sees the school celebrate 41 years of independence in Papua New Guinea. Our celebration begins with craft markets from 2.30pm. The official program begins at 5.00pm. The night will showcase several dances from various provinces in PNG, concluding with a shared dinner for students, parents and teachers. Performing groups will also be provided with food to share. All are welcome to come and celebrate with us.

Tomorrow, school finishes at 12.45pm. Students are to go home for a rest and return to school to prepare for the celebration at 4pm.

Happy Independence

We would like to thank families for the donations that have been made so far for the babies and children in the hausik. Please have a look at home for any items you could donate: toys, books or clothes in good condition. There is a basket outside the front office every morning for your donations. Thank you!
From the Student Council

Student Portfolios: Student Portfolios will be sent home today. Parents are encouraged to read through these portfolios with their child and are also encouraged to discuss the contents of the portfolios with class teachers during the interview times next week.
